2 Antioch 'chiefs' back again

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

One of the top issues in Robert Wilton's successful campaign for the office of mayor of Antioch was getting more police officers out on the street "protecting Antioch's citizens."

He had been the only trustee to dissent on the restructure of the police department which created a second lieutenant's position, bringing 14-year veteran Sgt. Charles Watkins inside. The restructure was implemented a few months before the election.

At that time, Wilton had called the restructure, "too many chiefs and not enough Indians."

Just two months after the election, Wilton has kept his promise to change the restructure by getting approval of the majority of the board to put both police lieutenants back in uniform and in charge of shifts in the police department on a trial basis.

At the last regular board meeting on Monday, the "new guard," Trustees Larry Hanson, Ed Kosiorowski and Marilyn Shineflug went along with Wilton's proposal to restructure the restructure of the police department, with Shineflug stressing "I'll go along with it on a trial basis.".

Trustees Don Amundsen and Mabel Lou Weber voted against changing the original restructure, with Amundsen claiming that the original changes, instituting a second lieutenant's position, promoting Watkins to an inside administrative position and moving Lt. Tom Fisher sideways to be in charge of investigations, was working well.

Voices got louder as Amundsen accused Wilton, Hanson and Kosiorowski of "undermining the police chief's authority at every turn." Hanson is chairman of the safety committee and Kosiorowski, vice chairman.

Both trustees denied any undermining, claiming that they had kept Miller informed at all times.

Amundsen asked that the proposal be discussed in committee, but Hanson and Kosiorowski said, " No, let's talk about it here, in front of the people."

When Police Chief Charles Miller was called into the meeting to give his opinion on the changes, he too claimed that the original changes "were working well."

"I don't think so," said Wilton, "there are

Future Indy stars

Children from all over the Lakeland area participated in their own version of the Indy 500 during Lakehurst Mall's annual 'Big Wheel 500.' Here, the young racers spin their wheels at the starting gate as they jockey for position, hoping they will get their chance to drive down Victory Lane. At stake were trophies, ribbons and gift certificates for the top three finishers in each age category.---Photo by John Vance

Petition drive in motion to support arts center

A petition drive has been put in motion to support establishment of a cultural arts center on Lake County Forest Preserve land at Center St. and Rte. 45, Gages Lake.

The drive is being spearheaded by the Grayslake Development Corp. (GDC), which has presented a plan to construct a 10,000-square-foot building on 10 acres at the corner and create a botanical garden.

President Edward D. Surroz of GDC said the building would be constructed with private funds. The plan calls for development of 10 acres of 58 acres owned by the forest preserve district.

Surroz outlined the plan for members of the golf course committee of the forest preserve district. He said GDC aims to get at least 2,000 signatures from each county board district to demonstrate public support for the center to county officials.

Robert K. Wegge, an accountant and GDC member, is in charge of receiving signatures. He can be contacted at 265 Center St., Grayslake, for information.

Members of the Lake County Arts Council are cooperating in the petition drive.

"We are in a desperate need for a good arts facility for the county. It is time for the performing arts to stand up and be heard. Why should the forest preserve spend all the money on golfers and ignore the performing arts?" Surroz asked.

"A greater percentage of the population enjoys the performing arts year around," added Surroz, who is in the construction and real estate business.

John Lynn of Mundelein, council secretary, has been meeting regularly with GDC, a private organization for advancing economic development and fostering commerce.

Surroz said the idea of a cultural center and botanical garden adjacent to Brae Loch Golf Course, a county facility, grew out of discussions at regular GDC meetings. "We feel the cultural center and botanical garden on 10 acres if the highest and best use of the acreage," Surroz.

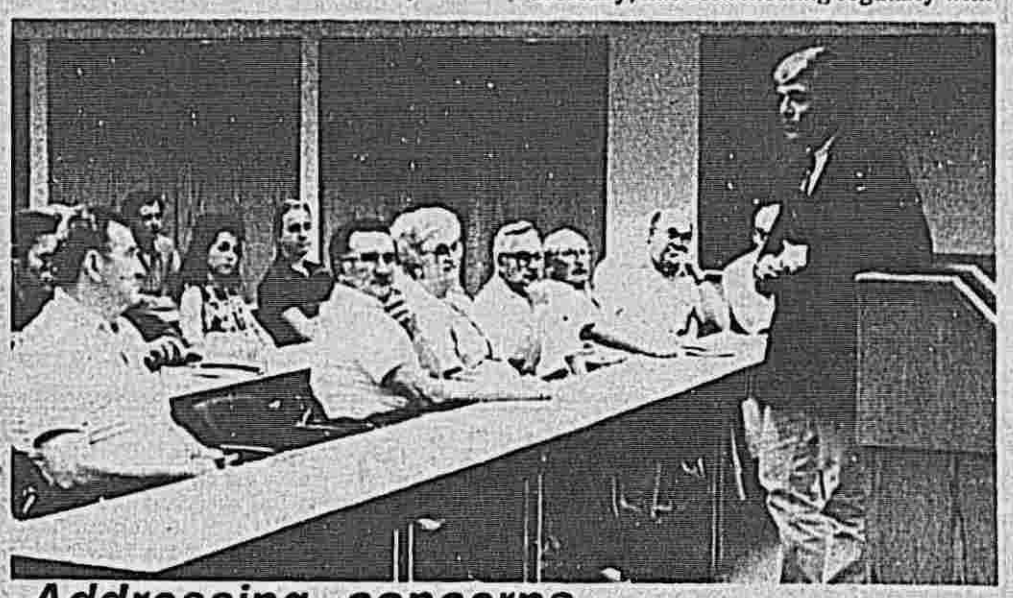

Golf course committee members had been considering expansion of Brae Loch with nine additional holes and creation of a stormwater detention area with a large wetlands area on the site.

GDC has this to say about development of the 58 acres:

"In the center of the remaining acreage, excavate a 20-acre lake which would be 20 feet deep at the deepest point with a grade of 5 to 10 percent. This lake would be used as a retention pond for the golf course, and when filled to the maximum, it would hold 32 million gallons of water. This lake could be used for watering the fairways for the Brae Loch Golf Course and stocked with fish. Due to the gentle slope of the lake, in normal rain years some of the area would remain dry. This dry area could be used for many activities such as biking, walking, jogging, picnicking, etc.

"The ground excavated from the lake would be used to develop a toboggan slide and a small walk-up ski slope for children, an area for grass tennis courts, volleyball courts and softball fields, thereby rounding out the balance of the acreage.

"The perimeter of the area, as well as around the lake, should be planted with trees such as flowering plums and maple. Said trees could be donated by the public.

Council honors companies, members elect new officers

Fourteen Lake County companies were honored at the May meeting of the Private Industry Council, for their role in training new workers through PIC On-the-Job Training.

Robert Broda, PIC chairman said, in making the presentations of plaques to the company representatives, "We recognize the significant contribution these firms have made to the benefit of many members of Lake County's workforce.

Companies so honored are Merchandising Inventives, Lake Bluff; Vonco Products, Lake Villa; Vari-Op Co., Waukegan; The Print Stop, Waukegan; Stack-On Products Co., Wauconda; Midwest Therapy Services, Round Lake Beach; NICASA, Waukegan; Onsrud Cutter, Libertyville; Chicago Show Printing, Waukegan; APR Corp., Wauconda; Generic Electrical Contractors, Gurnee; Triad Circuits, Round Lake; CHF Industries, Grayslake and Condell Hospital, Libertyville.

Election of council officers for the coming year also occurred during this meeting. Robert Broda of Barrington was reelected chairman and Carol Passalaqua of Vernon Hills was elected vice-chairman. Three council members completed their terms and were retired having served the council for the maximum term permitted under Lake County Board Rules. These members, Donald Ellison, John Wilson and William Krueger, received awards for distinguished service.

Graham goes from court date to court

Following an appearance before a grand jury last week, former Libertyville Twp. Sup. F.T. "Mike" Graham was back in court this week.

It was in connection with a lawsuit filed by the Libertyville Twp. board asking Graham to return all township papers, books and records in his possession.

Graham admits he took home thousands of documents, saying he did so with the impression they belonged to him because his signature was on them.

Late last month the township board asked Graham to sign an affidavit stating he had turned over all records to the township. As of early this week the paper was not signed.

Graham has many of his records stored in the Chicago office of his attorney, Michael Nash. He said about 95 percent of these are personal and, perhaps, five percent were inadvertently removed from the township office.

Graham said the township can make copies of all documents in his possession, but not at his expense. He also wants a clarification of personal and public documents before releasing them.

Graham is also accused of influencing votes by asking persons applying for general assistance to register to vote.

Basis of the grand jury probe is that Graham attempted to influence the vote of former Libertyville trustee Jerome J. Aguirre. It came in connection with the villages annexation of a townhome project by the Pulte Home Corp. Graham sought the same property for the township open space program. Graham has denied offering Aguirre a county job in exchange for a favorable vote.

Graham continues to serve as a member of the County Board representing Dist. 5. He faces re-election next year in a race where a number of challengers are already at work on their campaign.

Amundsen, Weber cite Wilton on liquor conflict

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

The fact that Mayor Robert Wilton's wife Leta has a 50 percent ownership in Struggles Restaurant, which has a bar, and Wilton sits as liquor commissioner, brought controversy to the last village board meeting this week when Village Atty. Ken Clark read a proposed ordinance allowing for the creation of an assistant liquor commissioner to be appointed in case any conflict of interest should arise.

Trustee Don Amundsen curtly asked the reason for this ordinance. Trustee Mabel Lou Weber joined Amundsen in questioning the proposed ordinance and Wilton's position.

Clark said that the purpose was to update the local ordinance so that it conforms to the state code.

Amundsen then asked if the ordinance had to conform. Clark said it did not.

Amundsen then said that he thought there was already a conflict of interest in Wilton being liquor commissioner because of the Struggles situation, he then demanded Wilton either resign as liquor commissioner or that the village pull Struggles' liquor license.

Clark explained that the state statute made no provision for the liquor commissioner resigning, but did allow for the appointment of the assistant.

After several demands that Clark read and reread both the local liquor ordinance and the state statute, Clark said that in 1983 the state had changed the restrictions and dropped indirect connection to a business that sells, manufactures or serves liquor as restricting a person from holding public office.

He added that the local ordinance should have been updated at that time.

When this took place six years ago, there was some controversy in Antioch because of Wilton and Mabel Lou Weber's position as trustees who voted on the issuance of liquor licenses.

Weber at that time worked for the Antioch Bowl which also has a bar.

The positions of Wilton and Weber were both seen as being cleared up when the state statute made a direct connection the only stipulation, since neither party was involved in the day to day liquor operation, nor did they purchase or derive a salary from the sale or serving of alcoholic beverages.

"This is just sour grapes because their candidate lost the election," said Wilton after the meeting, referring to Amundsen and Weber bringing the whole thing up again after six years.

Despite the fact that she and Wilton as trustees voted on liquor licenses, Weber said that she now saw a difference since Wilton is liquor commissioner.

Clark said that the new ordinance was the way to make sure that there would not be a future conflict of interest. He added that Amundsen's demand that the village pull Struggles' liquor license was "fool hardy."

As Oakland principal

Lienhardt prepares for new Antioch position

By STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

For almost 20 years, James Lienhardt could count on one thing when the school year started.

Whether the assignment be as principal of Gurnee Grade School or Spaulding School North, Lienhardt could be reasonably assured of knowing his way around. Where materials are located and how to get around the building were not questions he had to deal with.

But in August, all that will change. Lienhardt's driving time to work will be cut considerably when he drives across Antioch and reports to Oakland Grade School for his first day as principal.

But Lienhardt will be the new kid on the block at Antioch Dist. 34 when he replaces Walt Soderman, who is retiring after some 30 years of service to Antioch's youth.

"I'd like to work in the same town where I live," Lienhardt, who will officially begin his duties at Oakland July 1, said.

But he will always remember Gurnee.

"I'll miss the people. All the staff members and the friendships over the years. That's what makes any job a good job," Lienhardt said.

The longtime Antioch resident has been involved in Lake County education for more than 20 years. He began as a sixth grade teacher at Woodland Intermediate School in Gages Lake, was principal of Gurnee Grade School before being named the top man at Spaulding in 1975.

The school, which was originally its own district back in the 1950s, was about half the size of its present 560 students in grades kindergarten through three and the physical size of the building was smaller. The school has seen two additions since Lienhardt became principal.

"Growth will be a big concern. We're at capacity now," he said.

It is up to the principal to find room for the influx of students for the coming year. This year, a part-time art teacher has had to surrender her classroom to make way for a third section of third grade.

Increasing class sizes is something Gurnee Dist. 56 officials do not wish to see happen.

Much has changed in education since the outgoing Lienhardt, a Northern Illinois University graduate, started as a teacher some two decades ago.

"It's changed. A lot more is expected of things a school should do," he said.

Lienhardt, whose brother Mike is a junior high educator in Florida, said when he began as a teacher education was less stressful for the students.

Lienhardt pointed to drug education programs, family living and special education as new programs.

This year at Gurnee Dist. 56 schools, a program called "Growing Up Well" was introduced. Using parent volunteers dressed as clowns, the program stresses giving youngsters the information needed to make the right health decisions.

Next year the program will be expanded from kindergarten through third grade to sixth grade.

Principals Fred Nielsen at Gurnee Grade, Viking Junior High's Doug Schultze meet weekly with Supt. Wayne Schurter meet weekly to review administration concerns.

"You have to be able to have a good communication. That's the key to everything - keeping the lines of communication open," Lienhardt explained.

Although he has been in education for several years, Lienhardt does not presently wish to strive for a superintendent's position.

"I felt being a principal is where the action is. You get to deal with more people," he said.

An avid golfer who competes at a Tuesday night league at Spring Valley Country Club, Lienhardt has three children enrolled at Lake County schools. Chris, 20, is a College of Lake County student; Jennifer, 16, is a sophomore at Antioch High School and Jason, 12, is a sixth grader at Antioch Upper Grade School.

Any encouragement for the three to follow in Dad's footsteps?

"I want to encourage them to get a college education," he said.

Truck hits tree, two women die

Lori Williams, Ingleside, 22, and Rebecca Bossow, 22, Round Lake, died of injuries suffered in a one-truck accident that happened at 3:15 a.m., on Sunday, on Rte. 173, just west of Rte. 45.

Williams, the driver, was heading east on Rte. 173 when her truck suddenly went out of control, crossed the road and traveled on the opposite shoulder for approximately 300 feet, striking a tree.

The Lake County Sheriff's Dept.'s report shows that neither woman was wearing a seat belt at the time of the accident.

The driver was pronounced dead about an hour after the accident and the passenger, Bossow, who was transported to St. Therese Medical Center, Waukegan, died three hours later while undergoing surgery.

According to the sheriff's report, there were no skid marks at the scene, opening the possibility that the driver may have fallen asleep at the wheel.

HEEL PAIN

A heel spur is a boney growth on the underside of the heel bone. This growth appears in response to an abnormal pull from the ligament that runs through the arch. Other factors that indicate spurs are long term standing on hard surfaces. A Bursitis usually co-exsists with a spur and is what causes the pain. Treatment consists of custom made arch supports, called orthotics that relieves the tension on the ligament and pads the heel area. Surgery is rarely indicated.

If you have the above symptoms or any other foot discomfort, you may contact Dr. Winters for a NO COST CONSULTATION to see if there may be an answer to your foot pain.

by LIZ SCHMEHL
(312)395-5380

Under the direction of the Illinois Moose Assn., the Antioch Moose Lodge has begun to introduce the "McGruff Safety Program: into the kindergarten and first grade classes in the area schools. A beautiful puppet of the McGruff dog, from the TV commercials, has been distributed to all the Antioch area grade schools, plus Lake Villa Grade School and Lotus Grade School.

Teachers will be trained to teach this 32-week program on safety and awareness. The program utilizes audio cassettes, and the puppet to help the children in a wide variety of things—some of which are "Saying No to Drugs," "Identifying Crime," "Child Abuse," "Child Molesting," "Peer Pressure," "Personal Hygiene," etc.

The program is supported by private donations from Moose members. Each puppet is valued at $100, and the classroom McGruff passes to the next grade with the students.

Each year the program will extend to more classes until it eventually encompasses all kindergarten through sixth grade students. If your child attends one of these schools and you'd like to know more about how this worth while program works contact your local school or, if possible, direct your questions to the Antioch Moose Lodge.

Wilton mentioned that the only possible conflict might arise if there was a hearing on a license, adding he couldn't remember one in the last 20 years.

The board voted 3-2 to pass the ordinance with Amundsen and Weber voting against.

Trustee Marilyn Shineflug asked that a cover letter explaining the liquor commissioner pro tem situation be attached to the ordinance.

Wilton then appointed Trustee Larry Hanson assistant liquor commissioner, explaining that Hanson would take over any hearing that should arise. The vote approving Hanson passed 3-2, Amundsen and Weber voting no.

During the discussion, Clark said that he could see more of a problem if there were a conflict with the liquor commissioner, because the commissioner might "go too easy" on ordinance violations, so as not to appear predjudiced.

too many three piece suits in the village office, just what do you all do for $110,000 a year."

Wilton also asked who had done Watkins' paper work before he was promoted. Miller answered that he had done it.

"Then you can do it again," said Wilton as Miller warned that the village should "do more research before putting the lieutenants back in uniform," adding "you might have trouble with the police union because of a change in job descriptions, you took Watkins out of the bargaining unit and this might put him back into it."

Wilton said, " Just wearing a uniform can't be a problem, Watkins wears his once in awhile now."

Hanson said "Tom Fisher has been asking to get back into uniform for months."

Weber said, " This is the first time I've seen this, I think we should hold off on this until the next meeting and I have a chance to look at this."

Wilton said that "getting more officers on the street now with summer here is important."

The new mayor was not to be put off. "This is just a temporary move, if it doesn't work, we'll change it," he siad.

The motion was made, seconded and passed by a 3-2 vote, Amundsen and Weber dissenting.

Center for the arts

Something for the arts and culture.

That's the intriguing possibility confronting members of the golf course committee of the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. who have been presented with a plan for establishing a cultural center on 58 acres owned by the district adjoining Brae Loch Golf Course, Rte. 45.

The cultural center plan has been advanced by the Lake County Arts Council, representing nearly two dozen organizations, and the Grayslake Development Corp., which formally proposed that a 10,000-square-foot building be erected with private funds on the site on Rte. 45 near the College of Lake County and the Lake County Fairgrounds.

The proposal comes just in the nick of time. The committee was just about to approve an expansion plan for Brae Loch that would add nine holes for public play and answer some knotty storm drainage problems. Dist. 2 Rep. Audrey Nixon of North Chicago, committee chairman, feels it might take six months to provide an answer on the culture center plan.

We feel that this will be time well spent. The proposal to enhance the arts is so exciting and filled with promise that it deserves a full hearing. Granted, the committee might have to shift gears a bit, but there's a distinct possibility that the arts center could be created along with some golf course expansion. Nine additional holes probably is out of the question, but Dist. 3 Rep. Robert Neal points out that part of the plan included a driving range and three or four holes for CLC golf classes. That sounds good to us.

The Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. has been battered pretty severely in recent months for its aggressive open space acquisition program. The cultural center proposal offers commissioners an opportunity to head the district into a new direction.

We think the arts center would be a bright new dimension for the district. A facility for the arts centrally located in a corridor already identified for public use is a great idea, in our opinion.

Arm-twisting time

It's arm-twisting time in Springfield. This is no more evident than in the qualified support of a two-year state income tax increase to provide more funds for education announced by three normally conservative, anti-new-tax groups, the Illinois Manufacturers Assn., the Illinois Retail Merchants Assn. and the Associated Employers of Illinois.

All three attached stiff strings. In exchange for their backing, they want support for pro-business legislation. All well and good. That's the way things work in the state capitol.

It is looking more and more like the 1989 session will add to the tax burdens of the citizenry by providing some relief for education which, by the way, isn't all bad. The Democrats are pushing the temporary income tax hike, and the Republicans have their own plan for alleviating financial stress on the schools. Somewhere along the line, new dollars are bound to be found to help education.

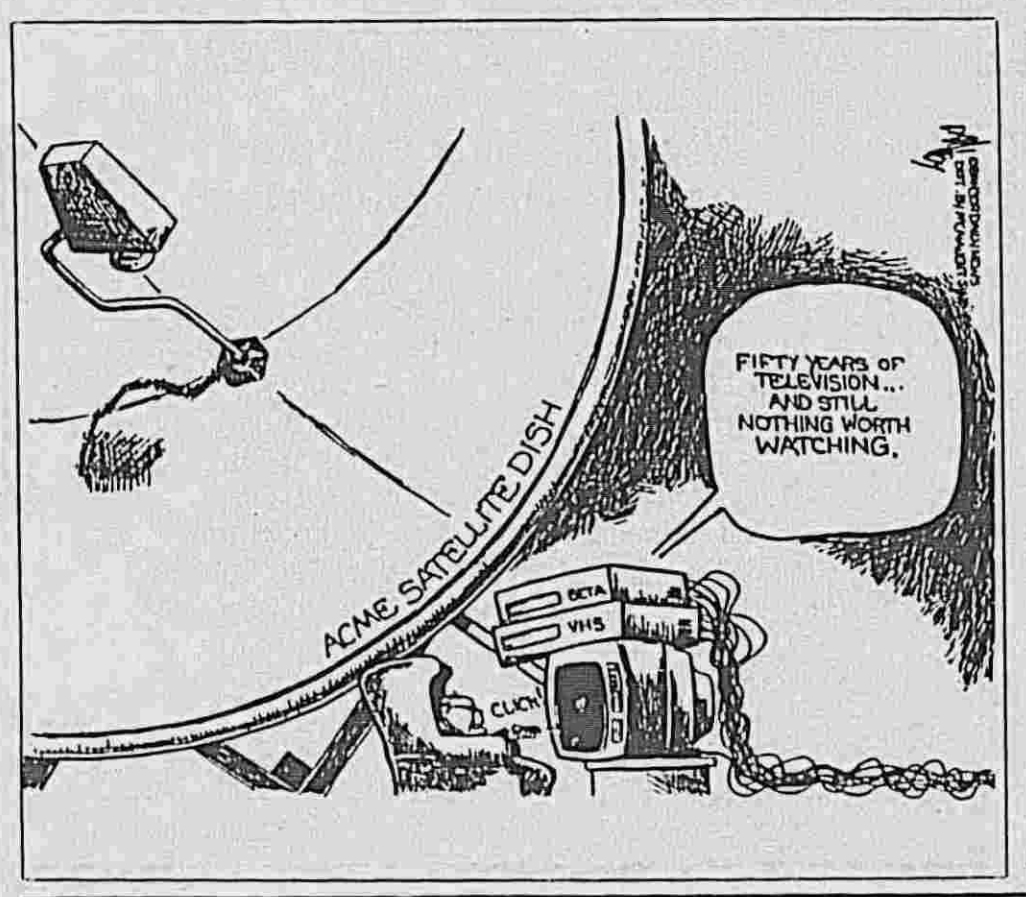

Reach of heavy hands

Can the force of a heavy-handed Texas politician reach into our community and alter our lives and the way we do business in northern Illinois? The answer is a resounding "yes."

That was the legacy left by resigned House Speaker Jim Wright, the nation's highest elected Democrat, who stepped down in disgrace and shame, bowing to pressure from the House ethics committee which was ready to press charges that he broke House rules on book royalties, circumvented limits on honoraria and improperly took money and gifts from a business partner with substantial interest in legislation.

Wright is as responsible for the savings and loan industry's mess as much as any public figure. Time and time again, Wright stepped in to wave off regulators who were attempting to bring freewheeling Texas thrift managers to heel. Wright protected financial buccaneers and, in some cases, outright thieves, because they were friends—and political contributors. Scandal in the Texas thrift industry produced ripples throughout the nation and will result in tribute that must be paid by U.S. citizens here and everywhere if financial ruin is to be avoided. Libertyville Federal Savings and Loan is now under federal control because of errancies in Texas.

In the end, Jim Wright proved not to be a leader, but a destroyer—a destroyer of the faith and trust put in him by his supporters and backers in Congress. Our system of government is based on faith and trust. That's why Wright's misdeeds touched us all. The only thing he has to salvage from his 35 years in public life is that he stepped aside voluntarily. That really isn't very much.

Riverboats might answer craving for more gambling

by BILL SCHROEDER

Now that riverboat gambling is more than a gleam in the eye of a few Illinois politicians, we wonder how long it's going to take before a serious proposal surfaces to extend the plan to the Chain O' Lakes.

Legislators in the Quad Cities area are pushing hard for a riverboat gambling bill to permit gambling on the Mississippi. They feel Illinois is getting ripped off because Iowa has approved similar legislation and will be monopolizing the wagering public in that locality.

Peoria politicians are so imbued with the idea that they want riverboat gambling for a portion of the Illinois River flowing past Peoria.

That brings us to the Chain O' Lakes/Fox River, one of the few other places in the state with a river wide enough and deep enough to float a boat of a size to contain crap tables, blackjack tables and dice wheels and all the other good stuff that people with sporting blood enjoy.

With pressure soon to be created by Wisconsin's stateline dog tracks, an argument easily can be built to support more gambling enterprises in this vicinity "to keep the money in Illinois." The lottery, Waukegan's off track betting emporium and Arlington Park may not be enough to satisfy the wagering public.

Riverboat gambling in these parts would be an entire new industry, albeit a seasonal one, that would provide lots of jobs and lots of taxes.

Launching of the S.S. Fleece and the S.S. Gypola may not be too far off. There's a lot of water between Wilmot Dam and Algonquin. Come to think of it, bringing the rubes to the docks up and down the Fox River would be one more reason why Rte. 53 needs to be built.

BASEBALL'S WONDER—At least half of Milwaukee's largest turnout of the 1989 baseball season so far showed up early to see some old-timers garbed in the flannels and polyester they used to wear recreate some of the gold old diamond days.

"Hammering" Hank Aaron, playing with Brewers of yesterday, received the biggest ovation, a standing one, at that. Hank grinned and waved his cap a lot, enjoying the evening immensely even though he got only a couple of infield taps in two trips to the plate.

The "new" old-timers from the Brewers were more intense than the old-timers representing an insurance company. Gorman Thomas, an ex-Milwaukee slugger who retired only a few years ago, demanded more pitches of his choosing until he was able to deposit one in the leftfield bleachers. The crowd loved Stormin' Gorman's shot, to be sure. That's one of baseball's wonders, the link with the past.

SEPARATE STATUS—Northern Illinois University alumni see legislative efforts to designate NIU a separate institution operating under its own board of trustees as a positive step and a significant development.

Under Senate Bill 1, NIU would be removed from control of the Board of Regents. The governor would appoint a six-person board. Sen. Jack Schaffer (R-McHenry County), an alum and one of the co-sponsors, says being the second largest college in the state, with its own law school and other unique qualities, NIU deserves to be recognized.

ONE MAN'S FAMILY—Lately, whenever the family gets together, sooner or later conversation turns to automobiles, particularly where they are built. Uncle Bob is a staunch supporter of American-made cars while the younger generation favors Japanese cars, even if they are built in the U.S. The debate always is lively and always ends up the same way—neither side is convinced. One difference none of us can resolve is the fact that the kids don't remember Pearl Harbor.

Continue fort fight

by ADELINE J. GEO-KARIS

Gov. James Thompson handed over a $10,000 state check to U.S. Rep. John Porter for a commission to spend in planning new uses for the Ft. Sheridan property.

Are they resigned to the closing of the fort? Should we give up so soon? I think they would better serve Lake County and the state of Illinois by continuing to push for retention of both Ft. Sheridan and Chanute Air Force Base.

Why rush into planning new uses for the fort, when two lawsuits have been filed to nullify the report of the federal commission that called for the closing? That report had many flaws in it! Geographically, Illinois is a good, central location for bases, allowing immediate mobility in case of emergencies, riots or disasters of any kind. Illinoisans carry more than our fair share of the federal tax burden. Why shouldn't we get some of that money back in support of bases that are here and functioning well? The government should consider closing some of the 1,500 bases overseas before it shuts down such important facilities as Ft. Sheridan and Chanute.

The federal government recently spent about $20 million improving Ft. Sheridan. If its operations were moved to Ft. Benjamin Harrison in Indiana, the government would have to spend another $300 to $400 million there. Does that make any sense at all?

I want to continue the fight to keep Ft. Sheridan and Chanute Air Force Base because Illinois has a right to those bases, and further, we cannot afford to lose all the jobs they provide. Many of the Ft. Sheridan workers are from my legislative district, which has already lost about 600 jobs due to the Chrysler closing in Kenosha. Closing the fort would affect all of Lake County, not just the immediate area.

If Congressman Porter is going to put together a commission to plan the future of the Ft. Sheridan property, membership should not be limited to legislators and mayors in the south end of Lake County. We in the northern part of the county also should be asked to participate.

All of Lake County should have a voice in any decision that are made, because the decisions will affect everyone in our county.

Letters to editor

Attacks unwarranted

Editor:

I have been extremely disturbed with the snide comments and innuendos of Joe Soulak, regarding the character of Charlie Johnston. I don't know how long Mr. Soulak has known Charlie, but I doubt he has known him as long as I have. Charlie and I have been friends for the past 17 years, when we were both involved with student government at Round Lake Sr. High School.

The Charlie I have known has been one of extremely high integrity and morals. He has been a member of more community and county-wide organizations than I can remember, and often chaired these meaningful groups with a dedication and fervor not often found. Very often these committees are both thankless and critical by nature.

Charlie has always placed the betterment of his community and county before that of himself or personal financial gain. I guess that is why I take great offense at attacks on him and some personal mistakes he has long since admitted and atoned for.

I guess the price one pays for being active and involved leaves one vulnerable to attack from those with differing opinions.

Plastic objectionable

Editor:

With the League's effort to reduce the solid waste stream and to encourage recycling, the League of Women Voters of Lake County is opposed to the proposal by Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Chicago to stop producing glass recyclable bottles and to put their drinks into 16-ounce clear plastic (P.E.T.) bottles.

They are proud of the fact that they have arranged for about 20 drop-off recycling centers in the Chicago area, but none is in Lake County or northern Cook County. It is a known fact that most people will not recycle these bottles unless they are included in the curbside pick-up, but most trucks are not prepared to handle additional recyclables at this time.

Citizens may wish to write William O'Rourke, president, Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Chicago at 7400 N. Oak Park Ave., Chicago, IL. 60648 to complain about adding plastic bottles to our landfills.

Selfless love

Editor:

A rare moment of selfless love as I watched cable news was one of those rare moments that overwhelms the soul.

Our Vietnam vets arrived in Russia to provide guidance, encouragement and strength to the Russian vets who fought in Afghanistan. The spirit of love that came from our 'Nam vets was so beautiful. This unselfish act was a pure example of God's love in motion.

Thank you, Vietnam vets, for showing the world the true meaning of love.

Making use of discards

Editor:

Driving through Lindenhurst on May 22, the designated day for Spring Cleaning Pickup, I became acutely aware of the huge problem that we are facing in Lake County today with the landfill problem being what it is.

The mountains of good, clean used furniture on its way to being destroyed aroused a feeling of moral obligation in me. Thinking of the thousands of people who are homeless, without anything - thinking of the tons of good, reusable furniture and appliances ending unused made me stop and search for a solution to the problem.

I must relate my own reaction. One day previously a young girl starting out on her own asked if I knew anyone with a reasonably price bed - I found one for her. I engaged my husband and together we drove down the street and picked up numerous articles. Still useable, things like wire mesh that can be used by a young couple who plan to build a house. They were thrilled. Plant stakes for a gardening friend. He was thrilled. The list goes on and it began to feel like Christmas.

We were finding things that could be reused. But the most remarkable experience came when my husband stopped the car to help two women bring a washer out to the curb. While he was out helping them, their neighbor was bringing out a brand new twin sized mattress that had been replaced by a larger one in his guest room. One can't imagine how thrilled the young girl was to all of the Lindenhurst residents who contributed their used articles. I want to make a plea to all Lake County residents that if we are to find a solution to homelessness, poverty and all of the other related disturbances in society today perhaps the answer is as simple as starting with garbage.

Somewhere there must be a place in Lake County where people can discard their reusable articles - a warehouse, vacant store, barn, garage, etc., where poor people can go and take what they need, give a donation if they can, and solve two problems at one time.

Communism not changed

Editor:

How can the leaders of China, whose revolution was "in the name of the people" justify the use of force to subdue "the people?" They cannot. It is against everything that their revolution stood for. And so, once again, communism has raised its ugly face and exposed its true colors. The world has seen the reason that the Red Banner is red--it is the color of blood.

China, by using force to retain the status quo (i.e., the continued existence of the communistic government), has shown that it is no better than the Nazis were in Germany, or the Facist's were in Italy. Indeed, the government of China has lowered itself to a level far below the one which they overthrew. It is apparent that communism is in power, not for the "people," but for itself.

Open your eyes, those of you who think that the current easing of tensions between democracy and communism is real, or lasting. Communism has not changed its basic stance, just its tactics. It is as dedicated to Karl Marx as ever. A change in the direction of the wind does not mean that the wind is going to stop blowing.

Democracy is not perfect. But, as a great statesman once said, "it is far better than what exists in the world today." Thank God for America.

Politically Speaking

by JOSEPH SOULAK
Lakeland Newspapers

William "Bill" Murphy is alive and well. The former 20-year member of the Illinois House of Representatives from this area, founder of 1st State Bank of Round Lake and the man for whom W.J. Murphy School in Round Lake is named, was found in Wisconsin Dells.

W.J. Murphy

Since 1984 he and his three sons have been developing Tamarack, an 80-acre condominium resort community with units priced from $47,900 to $73,900. Now 74, "Murph" lives in one of the 300- plus units of the development, which is about half sold.

This follows development of nearby Camp Delton, a 120-acre, 350 site recreational vehicle complex.

"Murph" says he hasn't been back to Lake County since 1986. He keeps abreast of what is going on by reading The Fox Lake Press and a steady stream of visitors from Illinois.

"Murph" is up to his eyeballs in work. Last year, for example, he spent $50,000 on a 24-foot waterfall between an upper fishing lake and a lower pond. "It probably didn't make much business sense," he said, "but I always wanted to build a waterfall. And at my age you don't put things off."

Adeline J. Geo-Karis has another honor to add to the many that seem to come her way. The Republican state senator from Zion is among 11 Illinois senators on the 1989 honor roll of legislative sponsors picked by the Illinois Women's Agenda Women's Lobby Project.

"She has demonstrated a commitment to the women of Illinois by acting as chief sponsor of legislation which can make a real difference in the lives of women," the organization said.

Geo-Karis is the sponsor of a Senate bill that will extend for five more years the Minority and Female Business Enterprise Act, which provides state financial assistance to encourage establishment and growth of businesses headed by women and minority members.

Making the political rounds last week and buying a few was Jim Ryan. Jim who?

The Jim Ryan who is state's attorney in DuPage County. He wants to run for Illinois Atty. Gen., Neil Hartigan's job next year. That is, if Lake County's own state's attorney, doesn't beat him to it.

Ryan showed up at last week's meeting of Lake County Republican Central Committee. There were about 15 in attendance, mostly township chairmen. He bought pre-dinner drinks for everyone at the Northern Chalet in Libertyville.

Those attending were impressed with the young, clean cut, conservative second termer.

Bottled water is hot. Everyone is getting into the act. For years it has been Perrier, Hinkley & Schmidt and, now, Pepsi.

Some people like the taste. Others don't trust the taste of their own municipal water.

Bottled water is not news to Lake Zurich or Lake Villa. They have been dispensing bottled water in their village hall for years. It's cool, clear and refreshing.

Samuel Skinner

Adeline Geo-Karis

A few weeks ago Samuel Skinner, secretary of the U. S. Dept. of Transportation, was back home. The Lake Forest resident and former chairman of the Regional Transportation Authority (RTA), doesn't get back here as much as he would like.

He was asked by this writer about the continued rise in gasoline prices. Only a week or so ago, for example, prices in Illinois were said to be the second highest in the nation only to California.

"What can I or others do about such prices?" I asked.

"Use alternate fuels," he said without batting an eyelash or cracking a smile about products still to be invented.

Hire planner

ANTIOCH — The Antioch Village Board approved the hiring of the firm of Planning Resources to conduct an environmental study and develop a land use plan for the area in the eastern part of the village and its outskirts, bounded by Deep Lake Rd., the state line and the township line in two directions. The study will cost up tp $25,000 and is expected to be completed inside of nine months.

Public or private

LAKE ZURICH—After further discussion on whether Lake Zurich should have public or private access, the Village Board delayed decision until its next meeting. Trustee Gary Winchester, who had previously said he would discuss creating an ordinance to declare Lake Zurich public at this meeting, moved to table discussion until Village Attorney Dennis Ryan develops an opinion on the issue by the next board meeting.

OK water rules

GURNEE---Gurnee Village Board members approved water use restrictions which will be in effect until Sept. 15 at the last board meeting.

Pick new trustees

MUNDELEIN—One of two trustee vacancies will be filled at the Saturday, June 10, village board meeting. Gerald Caslavaka, who ran fourth for three trustee openings in the April election on Mayor Marilyn Sindles' ticket, is scheduled to be picked. He will fill the term to which long-term Trustee Richard Starkey was appointed in April when he lost a bid for mayor. The action was ruled invalid by a Circuit Court judge in a lawsuit brought by the new mayor because Starkey voted for himself in the 4-0 board decision. Still to be filled is the two-year unexpired term of Sindles.

Honor Davis

GRAYSLAKE---Members of the Grayslake Volunteer Fire Dept, will be hosting an appreciation night for Jim Davis on June 15 at Olde Stratford Hall. Davis has served as president of the Grayslake Fire Protection Board of Trustees for the last 12 years. The evening will begin at 7 p.m. and refreshments will be served. Tickets are available at the fire station or from any Grayslake firefighter.

War over 110 acres

HIGHLAND PARK—Two factions are at war over the 110-acre Highland Park savannah/wetlands, also know as the Polk property or Hybernia. Red Seal Development Corp. wants to build 119 upscale homes on the property, promising to set aside 23 acres as a preservation corridor. The city council, Sierra Club and Audubon Society, among others, have endorsed purchase of the land by the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. Red Seal officials say 4,000 acres of land could be purchased elsewhere in Lake County for what the Highland Park property will cost. Showdown is Friday, June 16, when the Forest Preserve Dist. meets in Waukegan to consider the purchase.

80% water rate hike

LIBERTYVILLE—Officials are alarmed about a prospective 80 percent increase in raw water rates. Notice was received this week from Lake County Public Works Dept., which supplies the village, that North Chicago will boost pumping charges from 96 cents per 1,000 gallons to $1.72. Last year the village absorbed an increase from 70 cents per 1,000 gallons to the current rate.

Remove liquor

ANTIOCH — Antioch's Mayor Robert Wilton sent a letter to the Antioch Police Dept. ordering that the beer and alcoholic beverages being kept in the bar in the basement of the police department be removed from the building. Wilton said at a following board meeting, "I know of no other police department in the area that keeps liquor on its prenises. The liquor in question had been donated to the police association by residents.

The Kid's Loft offers children's furniture of all kinds

A customer walking into The Kids' Loft for the first time notices it's unique. Perhaps it's the fact that the store is located in an authentic , 120-year-old barn. Or maybe it's the realistic displays, set up like actual kids room's.

Maybe it's just the furniture itself.

Located in Old Volo, on Rte. 120 just past Rte. 12, The Kids' Loft was opened last October by Mike Grahms and his uncle, Bill because, according to Mike, "There were no decent stores in the area supplying quality kids' furniture at quality prices."

Mike remembers back to1961, when his family first purchased the barn. "We had to shoo the cows out," he said. "They came with the deal."

Since then, the barn has been transformed into the current building, but still retains much of its original flavor, from the characteristic ceiling sand doors to the former hay loft, which no longer has hay but houses childrens furniture.

The Kids' Loft features wide varieties of styles and prices. The children's sections show furniture sets in Early American cherry to French American provincial, as well as the original Corvette-car bed. American-made boys or girls white modern, and a girl's colonial American in pink, the store's best-seller.

"Folks like the warmth of that set," said Mike.

The Kids' Loft also has bunk beds, from sturdy oak and pine to a special Belgian made metal featuring a wire mesh to let the mattress lie flat.

"We carry furniture for about the same price as other stores, and it's a better quality," said Mike.

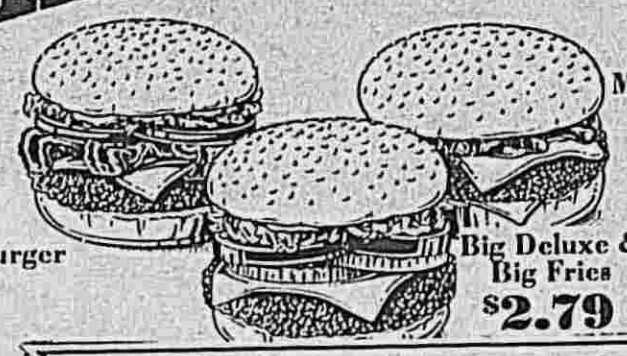

The baby's area of the store sells an equally wide selection of cribs.

"Every crib you see in here has matching furniture in the children's part," said Mike. "So when junior is out of the crib, the parents have something to build on."

Evenflow and Child Craft are a few of the cribs sold.

The Kids' Loft sells more than bedroom sets, however. Throughout the store are different types of rocking chairs, including glider rockers. Also Pee-Wee Herman's Chairy is sold, a favorite kids item. Parents can also buy the carpet off the floor, which has designs for hopscotch and other kids' games on it.

LML, an interior design firm, has leased 990 square feet in the retail center to house its sales and administration office. Terry Mostrom of Grubb & Ellis was the representative broker in the transaction.

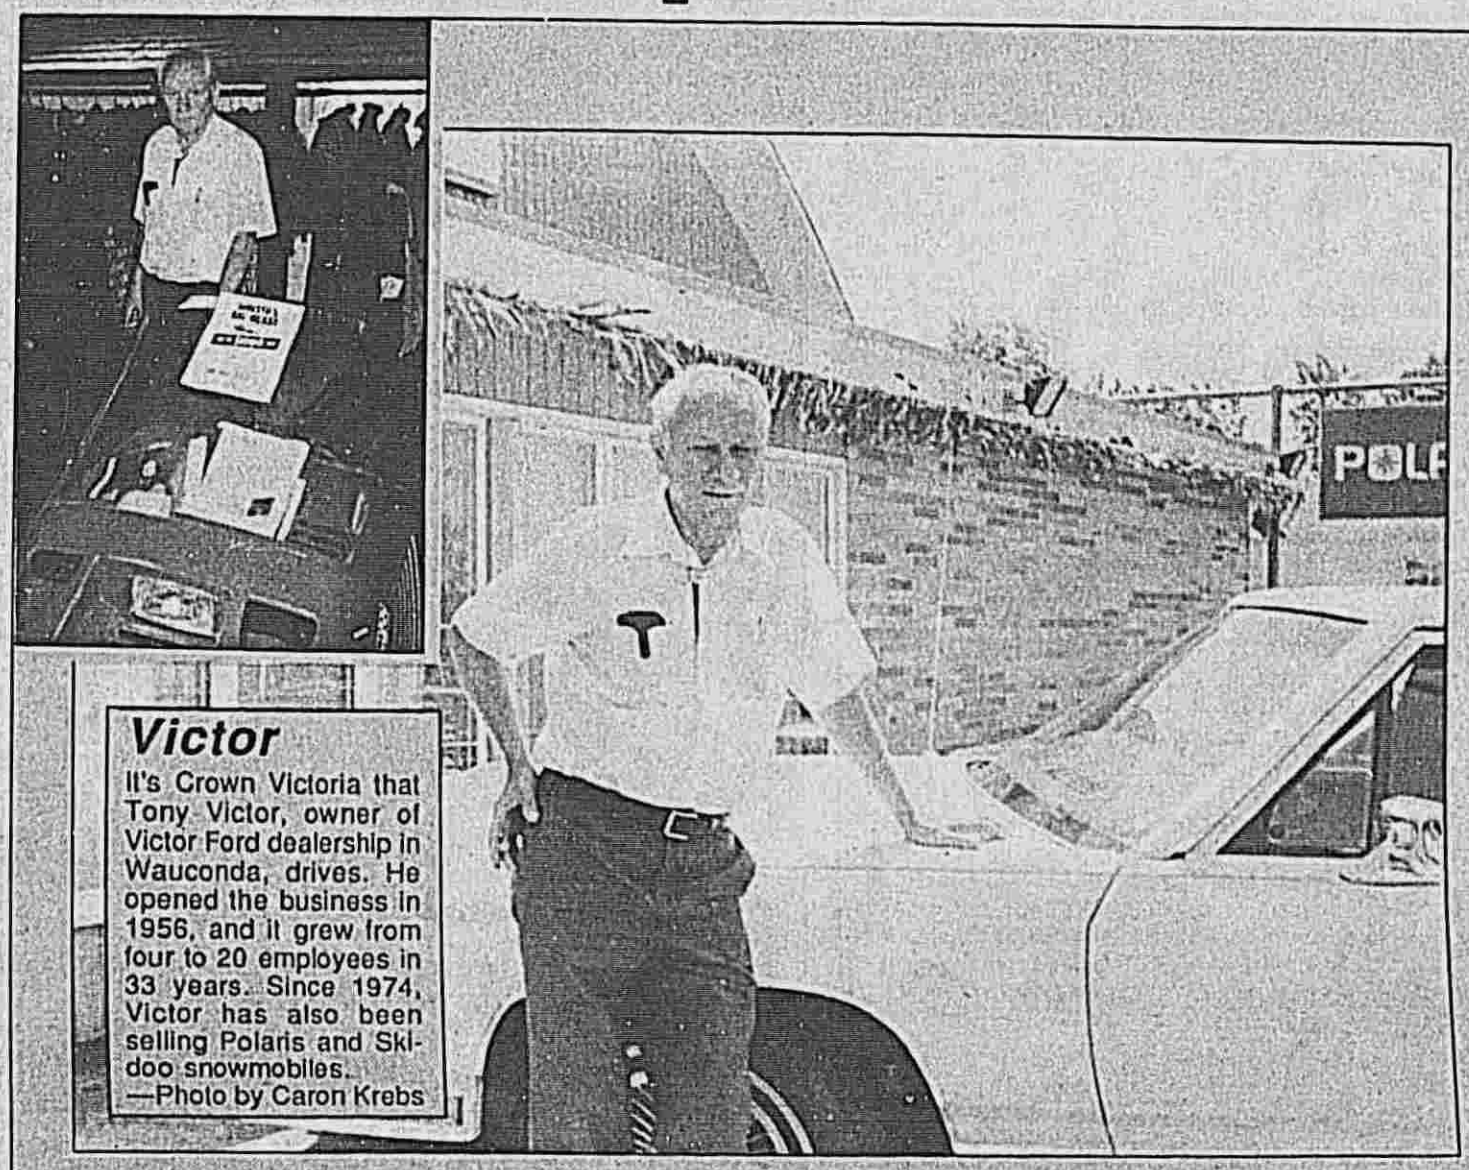

Buffalo Grove

Entre Consulting Group, based in Buffalo Grove, has been named one of North America's leading local area computer network value-added resellers by LAN magazine, one of the nation's leading computer publications. The company was recognized as one of the leaders in integrating hardware and system software into a customer site and adding value to the equipment it sells, according to the magazine, which compares its LAN . . listing to Fortune Magazine's Fortune 500. The LAN 100 ranking is the result of an exhaustive survey by the magazine of computer dealers in the U.S., Canada and Mexico. The ranking is partially based on 1988 revenues of these independent dealers, none of whom are manufacturers.

It's Crown Victoria that Tony Victor, owner of Victor Ford dealership in Wauconda, drives. He opened the business in 1956, and it grew from four to 20 employees in 33 years. Since 1974, Victor has also been selling Polaris and Ski-doo snowmobiles.

Honesty, key to growth: Victor

by CARON KREBS
Lakeland Newspapers

Tony Victor, 64, founder and owner of Victor Ford on Rte. 12 in Wauconda drives a white Crown Victoria.

"It's probably the best buy on the market for big cars," he says about the heavy, spacious automobile.

Victor went into the automobile dealership in 1956, when Ford Motors Co. approached him at his farm machinery business at the same site.

Starting with 250 new cars and four employees 33 years ago, Victor has built his business to 20 employees (including eight in the service dept.), selling about 1,000 new and used cars per year.

Victor says the growth has occurred because "We've been honest with people."

The dealership treats people right, and "that means satisfied customers." He adds, "We have customers we're still doing business with since 1956."

Victor says the growth of his dealership may also be credited to the population growth in the area and to the financing Ford Motor Co. offers.

When he started as a farm machinery dealership, he says the area was more rural, but now more people are moving into subdivisions in the area. "You've got to have development" to sell cars, he says.

> "We have customers we're still doing business with since 1956."
> —Tony Victor

Back then, Victor says the Ford Fairlane 500 was a best seller, but today he can't pinpoint a favorite car because of the variety he sells.

He does say the models he sells depends on finance rates and on the time of year. During the summer, for instance, people planning a vacation may decide they want a van instead of a car.

In 1974, Victor added a snowmobile line (Polaris and Ski-doo) to the dealership. His sons, Jeff and Rodney, who both work with him in sales, race the snowmobiles in Antioch.

Auto racing is also an interest with the Victors, who sponsor cars with races up in Wisconsin.

They also sponsor "mini-champs," which are smaller versions of the Indy 500 cars with snowmobile engines. Dick Hautzing, whom they sponsor, has held the highest points award for mini-champ racing for a number of years.

The mini-champ cars they sponsor race in Lake Geneva and Rockford on Saturdays, but, Victor doesn't get to go to the races "as much as I'd like to."

Victor is a member of the Wauconda Chamber of Commerce and notes he has had perfect attendance in the Lion's Club for 33 years.

Kelly Services, 'Company of Year'

Kelly Services, Inc., the nation's largest temporary help company with offices in Libertyville and Waukegan, has been named "Company of the Year" by a distinguished panel of judges convened by the Detroit Free Press, according to Kelly Temporary Services Resident Branch Manager Bonny Koffler in Libertyville.

"Because Kelly Services was selected for its work in local communities across the United States as well as in Michigan, this award is a special honor for all Kelly Temporary Services and Kelly Assisted Living employees," said Terence E. Adderley, president and CEO of Kelly Services, Inc. "The judges focused on the overall performance of Kelly Services, Inc., including the great work of Libertyville and Waukegan offices in business as well as community activities."

The Libertyville and Waukegan offices were "very active in local charity and community activities in 1988 including our donation of free temporary help to local non-profit organizations, as well as our installation, configuration and training of a donated Wang work processing system of the Lake County Urban League," said Koffler. "It's always been our policy to try and give something back to the communities in which we do business."

Kelly Services, Inc., employs more than 550,000 temporary employees annually through its Kelly Temporary Services and Kelly Assisted Living branch offices.

Kelly Temporary Services division provides temporary employees in the areas of office automation, office clerical, marketing, light industrial, and technical support to 175,000 customers each year.

EYE CARE

News, Views & Questions About Your Eyes

By
Robert L. Epstein, M.D., Director
Illinois Center for Corrective Eye Surgery

QUESTION: Would you please explain to me what a cataract actually is?

ANSWER: A cataract is a clouding of the normally clear lens of the eye. This clouding, a natural aging of the lens in most cases, prevents light from passing through the lens to the back of the eye, or retina. Much like the lens of your camera focuses light on the film, the lens of your eye focuses light on the retina. If the front of your camera's lens becomes dirty or fogged, then the picture taken will be hazy or blurred.

Estate tax is highest levied

This Way to Wealth

by ALAN NADOLNA

Estate planning is probably the most important, but also the most overlooked area of tax planning. No one likes to think of the inevitable, and many misunderstand the importance of proper planning.

From a cost standpoint, the estate tax is the highest tax levied today, and may even get higher. The maximum basic estate tax bracket is 55 percent, but if you add potential excise taxes on certain distributions, the total estate tax can exceed 70 percent. That is more than two-thirds of a lifetime accumulation of assets.

One of the most interesting vehicles used in estate planning situations is an old form of life insurance called survivorship, or second death insurance.

This policy was used sparingly for several years. Recent tax law changes, however, have made it perfect for current estate situations.

The marital deduction has all but eliminated estate taxes on the first death of a husband and wife. This is really a delay of the inevitable. On the second death, the estate is exposed to taxation on all assets totaling more than $600,000.

It is not difficult today to accumulate an estate of $1 million, considering real estate values, business valuations, etc. An estate of this size will have a tax bill of $120,00, not including probate and administration costs.

The survivorship policy provides the liquidity when it is needed, which is when the tax bill is due. The fact that the benefit is paid on the second death makes the premium surprisingly low—often as low as 1.2 to 2 percent of the benefit per year.

An additional benefit of some of these policies is that certain contracts are fully paid up at the first death. This means that the surviving spouse will have no premiums to pay. The cash values of this contract are high in comparison to normal, ordinary life contracts.

There are a number of situations where this policy is used that are not the typical estate case. Where several partners own a business, the policy can be used to fund a buyout for a very reasonable premium. There are several charitable applications as well, particularly when trusts for disadvantaged children need to be established after the parents' deaths.

This is an excellent concept, and it offers one of the few solutions to our most significant tax problem. We welcome readers' questions about survivorship life.

A translation of travel brochure terms

by JIM WARNKEN, PRESIDENT
NORTH STAR TRAVEL, INC.

How many times have you looked through those travel brochures and magazines and wondered what a hotel that offers "all the amenities" or boasts of "plush rooms" really has to offer?

Well, here is your first lesson in "travelese," the official language of the travel industry.

"All the amenities" translates into free shoe caps. "Plush rooms" are the ones that include top and bottom sheets!

Let's try a few more.

If a room is called standard, it's substandard. Want a standard room? That's the one they call deluxe. So what is a superior room? We're back to "free shower cap"!

A hotel that claims to have "Old-World charm" probably has the bath down the hall. If the brochure describes the resort as "quaint" and "off the beaten path," you're looking at something rundown to which everyone else has stopped coming.

Now, if the vacation spot you plan to visit is described as "sun-drenched," you're most likely heading for an arid wasteland. The term "tropical" before anything can be replaced by "rainy."

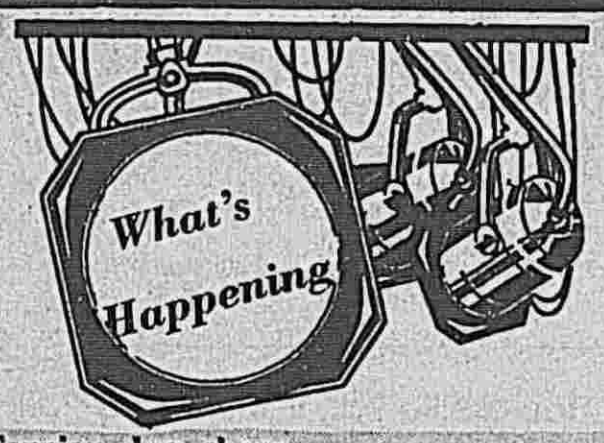

A tour that claims "options galore" means nothing is included. "No extra fees" means no extras. If your itinerary provides for time to "explore on your own," it means you pay for it yourself.

As most people know by now, a motorcoach is a bus. But what is a deluxe motorcoach? That's a bus with clean windows.

One last note. If the writer uses that phase "too numerous to mention," he has never been there.

Summer traveler can find much more in own backyard

Illinois has much more to offer the outdoor traveler than many suspect, including as easy distance trip. Without leaving the state, our writer group spent three days in the five counties of Illinois' Northwest Passage Corridor.

We started in Rockford, about 75 miles away, in the corridor's southeast corner to Galena in the northwest.

We saw a surprising variation, from our famous plains to unexpected mountain-like foothills studded with lakes, rivers, streams, fishing, boating and the always interesting local history that adds a picture to familiar names and places.

Personalities like Abe Lincoln, U.S. Grant, Ron Reagan and John Deere became realities as we visited their homes and surroundings they made famous.

As we enter the June summer travel plan period, with Independence Day celebrations just around the corner, long July 4th weekends often extend throughout the week.

Our highways will bustle with travelers looking to sample the spirit of independence they celebrate at this time. Details about the Northwest Passage corridor may be obtained by phoning 800/747-8474, or writing the council at Box 201, Galena, IL 61036. Their brochure maps out the area and highlights contents for easy selection of destinations and visits.

Time on your hands may respond to the amazing display of timekeeping devices, some so intricate as to be almost unbelievable. This history in Rockford's Clock Tower can fascinate a visitor, but the puzzle still remains, "What, exactly is time?"

In Danville, Ill., on our eastern border, 80 hot-air balloons are scheduled to ascend at the Vermillian County Airport during the weekend beginning Friday, June 9. A novelty tethered Balloon Glow will please onlookers and camera buffs. Injected propane flames create after-dark dimensions seldom seen. Saturday and Sunday flights and competitions are scheduled, weather permitting. Daily admissions are $3 and $1 for kids six-14.

Nearby at Kickapoo State Park, conservation's Sunshine Jamboree runs June 10-11. Hosted by the department's special events staff, a conglomerate of entertainment runs from noon to 5 p.m. daily. Hot air balloons will be visible, along with flying model airplanes, kite contests and descending skydivers.

Information regarding festivities, including housing and campsites may be obtained by calling the Danville Area Tourism Office toll free, 800/383-4386. An examination of the last four figures of that number shows it spells 4FUN, so dial it any way that pleases.

The weekend is an outstanding opportunity for a family visit.

Circus in Town

by TOM WITOM

Even the most jaded circus-goer will find Cirque du Soleil, Montreal's "Circus of the Sun", something to cheer about.

Playing under a large tent at Chicago's North Pier just west of Lake Shore Dr., Cirque du Soleil is a colorful spectacle, full of vibrant, creative performers.

Its spring-fresh aura— in contrast to many more traditional circuses— is striking. There's nothing tired or faded about this production. Even the commercial aspects are downplayed, with vendors restricted to a small outer tent.

And what's more, it's a show without animals! But the absence of the elephants, tigers and ponies is not noticeable.

Cirque du Soleil pulls it off with first-rate entertainers, sophisticated music, lighting and theatrics. Juggler Frederic Zipperlin puts a new spin to his art, and tightrope Pasqualina does things you shouldn't try at home.

Seven on a bicycle had the audience catching its breath; when the number reached an astonishing 13, the crowd's mood was sheer apoplexy.

The clowns, especially Benny Le Grand, added a further touch of class. When he and an associate get into a mock fight and the weapons are paint brushes and buckets of whitewash, the outcome, while predictable, still adds up to fun.

Cirque du Soleil plays Tuesday through Sunday, with extra performances on the weekends. It's a terrific show for all ages.

Volo auction to feature collector auto classics

A custom-made 1936 Delahaye Type 135 roadster became one of the latest additions to the growing list of race and exotic cars slated to cross the block at the upcoming "Chicago '89" auto auction on June 9 through 11. Assembled by the fabled Italian designers Figoni and Falaschi, the automobile was built for Charles Trenet, a French singer and composer.

According to the auction promoter Bill Grams, the current value of the Delahaye roadster lies between $900,000 and $1 million. Sporting its original coat of red paint, auctioneer Dean Kruse will open the car to bids on Sunday, June 11.

Those interested in finding out more about Chicago '89 and the more than 500 collector-grade cars worth over $10 million dollars which will be auctioned should contact the Volo Auto Museum at 27640 W. Hwy. 120, Volo, Ill. (815)385-3644. To consign a car, ask for George Eber.

The auction will be held on a 50-acre site adjacent to the Volo Auto Museum in rural Volo, just 35 miles north of O'Hare International Airport. A full 30-acres has been reserved for parking, including a special VIP section.

Adult spectator admission for the three-day event is $6 per day. In addition to the 500 auction cars, the Volo Auto Museum will also be offering 100 cars from its private collection for general sale.

Summer traveler can find much more in own backyard

OUTDOORS WITH COL. BILL RADKE

Illinois has much more to offer the outdoor traveler than many suspect, including as easy distance trip. Without leaving the state, our writer group spent three days in the five counties of Illinois' Northwest Passage Corridor.

We started in Rockford, about 75 miles away, in the corridor's southeast corner to Galena in the northwest.

We saw a surprising variation, from our famous plains to unexpected mountain-like foothills studded with lakes, rivers, streams, fishing, boating and the always interesting local history that adds a picture to familiar names and places.

Personalities like Abe Lincoln, U.S. Grant, Ron Reagan and John Deere became realities as we visited their homes and surroundings they made famous.

As we enter the June summer travel plan period, with Independence Day celebrations just around the corner, long July 4th weekends often extend throughout the week.

Our highways will bustle with travelers looking to sample the spirit of independence they celebrate at this time. Details about the Northwest Passage corridor may be obtained by phoning 800/747-8474, or writing the council at Box 201, Galena, IL 61036. Their brochure maps out the area and highlights contents for easy selection of destinations and visits.

Time on your hands may respond to the amazing display of timekeeping devices, some so intricate as to be almost unbelievable. This history in Rockford's Clock Tower can fascinate a visitor, but the puzzle still remains, "What, exactly is time?"

In Danville, Ill., on our eastern border, 80 hot-air balloons are scheduled to ascend at the Vermillian County Airport during the weekend beginning Friday, June 9. A novelty tethered Balloon Glow will please onlookers and camera buffs. Injected propane flames create after-dark dimensions seldom seen. Saturday and Sunday flights and competitions are scheduled, weather permitting. Daily admissions are $3 and $1 for kids six-14.

Nearby at Kickapoo State Park, conservation's Sunshine Jamboree runs June 10-11. Hosted by the department's special events staff, a conglomerate of entertainment runs from noon to 5 p.m. daily. Hot air balloons will be visible, along with flying model airplanes, kite contests and descending skydivers.

Information regarding festivities, including housing and campsites may be obtained by calling the Danville Area Tourism Office toll free, 800/383-4386. An examination of the last four figures of that number shows it spells 4FUN, so dial it any way that pleases.

The weekend is an outstanding opportunity for a family visit.

The second in Landmarks small home series is the Portage. Parents can cook dinner and still keep an eye on kids playing in the front yard in the Portage. Multi-paned windows wrap around three sides of the unique half-octagon kitchen bay offering a panoramic view of the neighborhood.

On the exterior, the kitchen's octagonal protrusion creates one of several interesting roof line variations which give the home a Tudor look. Truncated gables and rough-sawn board trim on the stucco exterior add to the Tudor styling.

The kitchen is large with plenty of counter space, and since it's just inside the front door, handy for popping in to grab a snack. Less formal families might prefer combining the dining and living rooms into one big family room.

The home has a large master bedroom with a double vanity in the dressing room between the bathroom and walk-in closet. A skylight fills the guest bathroom with soft natural light.

This design shows one of the bedrooms as smaller. If necessary to keep the peace, bedroom #3 could be expanded by sacrificing the workshop space at the back of the two car garage.

An opportunity space in the utility room can be used for sewing, hobbies, exercise machines or extra storage.

For a study plan of the PORTAGE (209-09), send $5.00 to Landmark Designs, P.O. Box 2307, Eugene, OR 97402. (Be sure to specify plan name & number when ordering). Designers, Architects and readers with plans they would like to see featured also are invited to contact Landmark.

THIS WEEK'S HOROSCOPE
BY SALOME

Weekly Tip: Your evening should be cheerful, entertaining and diversified.

Aries (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Return a kindness. Use common sense to cut down on waste. Laughter freshens up this cycle. Arrange for pleasant entertainment with good friends.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) Possession of talent qualifies you to get the job done. Promote a better work atmosphere by cheering others along to success, for now and later.

Gemini (May 21 to June 21) Knowledge without common sense turns to useless folly. Look for extra sources of income that will improve your lifestyle. Be thrifty.

Cancer (June 22 to Jul. 21) The focus is on feelings. If unattached, you may find yourself in a romantic situation that is getting off to quite a rocky start. Remain steadfast.

Leo (Jul. 22 to Aug. 21) Personal energy is high. You daydream about someone you admire. Intuitive ideas will work well when applied to career objectives. Be watchful.

Virgo (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Get ready for action. Get on the good health track. Do what you enjoy doing. Your goals have your enthusiasm and can produce immediate results.

Libra (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Take care of necessities, and then hit the road for some fun. There is a change of pace in how you relate to a romantic partner. The shift is welcomed.

Scorpio (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Social interests gain momentum. Turning on the charm will get results. A partner seems difficult. Use wisdom as a guiding force at home and work.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) A new approach to a relationship can help smooth out the bumps. Strike a happy note where home is concerned. Relatives need you now.

Capricorn (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You find the good in an associate who has a questionable past. Keep hands off of a clandestine relationship. Your sensual level is high.

Aquarius (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Check boredom with entertainment that is different. Look beyond appearances when seeking romantic friendships. Use your social charms.

Pisces (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Sometimes you give up too soon. Self-imposed limitations can channel your energy down a steady path. Stick to one plan for rewarding results.

Pet Parade

PET CORNER

Q. We just got a doberman pinscher puppy. She is really sweet right now, but I know dobermans have a vicious nature, and I'm concerned about her biting the kids who live next door, especially as she gets bigger. The kids pull on her tail, but it's all in fun. She already is beginning to nip at them when they get too rough, but that's not her fault. We would like her to act as a watchdog, but I don't want her to attack people. What will happen if she bites somebody, like the mailman or the children? Are there laws that will protect us as long as she is on our property?

A The laws which refer to dog bites protect the victims, not the owner or the dog. There used to be law that basically said dog owners were liable for the behavior of their dogs only if there was reason to believe the dog had tendencies toward aggression. In those days, the first time a dog bit someone, no action could be taken against the owner. If it happened again, the owner would be liable and the dog, in some cases, would be put to sleep. Now those laws have changed, and action can be taken against the first bite. It is your responsibility as an owner to either keep your dog locked or tied up. It is also your responsibility to train your dog properly so that it doesn't bite or jump up on people.

You are incorrect in assuming that dobermans are vicious by nature. There are very few, if any, dog breeds that are vicious by nature. Aggression is the result of training, and overly aggressive dogs usually have poor trainers. If you hit your dog with your hand or a newspaper, the dog will learn to either cower or protect itself by attacking you.

If you would like your dog to act as a watchdog, you should take it to obedience school and learn to train it properly. The dog will learn to respond to your commands in any situation.

Pet of the Week

Sir Dugan

Sir Dugan is not you're typical home-trained dog. He is good natured and has nice manners. The owners call him "sir" because he is always on his best behavior and acts like a gentleman. He can be silly, funny looking and very lazy. Some people say he looks like a walking rug. He is owned by Dana Russell of Mundelein.

Warren honors Strang, veteran staff members

When Elmer Stone and Donald Haugh began their Warren Twp. High School teaching careers, it was not the first time that the two worked close by.

"We were a block and a half a way in the Army for a year-and-a-half and we did not even know it," Stone said.

Stone and Haugh were among five Warren Twp. High School staffers to be recognized for more than 25 years of service to the Gurnee School. Fred Kattner, Ron Meyer, Esther Keefauver and retiring staff member James Strang were also honored at the annual staff recognition dinner.

Stone and Haugh presently share the honors as senior faculty members as they both joined the staff in 1956.

Haugh, a guidance counselor, has taught chemistry, math, science and geometry at Warren.

"Each day is a different day," Haugh said when asked about what he likes most about Warren.

Stone, a math instructor since he started at the Gurnee school, still has that enthusiasm for education he had when he reported to Warren High as a Northern Illinois University graduate.

When Stone's job as a teacher is almost completed, one of Haugh's is just beginning. It is Haugh's job to see that the graduation requirements have all the i's dotted and t's crossed.

Both have served in several capacities at Warren. A former coach for several sports including boys varsity basketball, Stone can be most visible during the football and basketball seasons as timer. He also often starts races in track and field events. Sometimes a cool patience is required when dealing with an emotional coach.

"Sometimes you run into coaches who don't know the rules," Stone said.

Stone has had a chance to see a three-decade evolution in math instruction. Gone are the calculators which take up entire desk tops.

In the late 1050s and early 1960s there was the era of "New Math". "In the hands of the wrong people, it turned out wrong," Stone said.

"We see more people coming into high school with algebra experience," Stone said.

Strang, who was given a standing ovation by his colleagues, praised the role of teachers. Presently director of administrative services and state mandates, Strang has had many roles at Warren including principal. He also served as head of the science department, as a coach, and in pupil personnel services.

"We appreciate the work he has done," Warren Supt. Robert Shepherd said.

Shepherd noted Strang's efforts in securing Lake Forest High's west campus as a place to relocate students following the 1984 fire.

"I think we are all called to this vocation for one reason and that is to work with the kids. Their success is partly your success. The miracles you produce are reflected in the community every day," Strang, who has been at Warren since 1965, said.

Warren secretary Patricia Foreman, who will be retiring in October, also was given a standing ovation. Most of the Foreman family were present at the banquet, including Warren Twp. Trustee Donald Foreman and Lake County State's Atty. Fred Foreman.

Welcomed to the Warren staff after having achieved tenure were: Jayson Paulos, Michael Mieszala, Roy Triveline and Kelly Wilkerson.

Acting chief Nagel, sees 'favorable reaction'

Favorable reaction has marked the change of command in the Fox Lake Police Dept.

Lt. Ron Nagle, 17-year veteran of the department, summed up response to his being named acting chief as a "good reaction."

After one week in the temporary post he hopes soon will be made permanent, Nagle declared, "There has been a good reaction The men have been cooperative. There has been a good response from other village department heads."

Nagle reported with a broad smile, "My wife is supporting me all the way."

A meeting was set for today where Lt. Nagle planned to talk to all Fox Lake police personnel. Only other persons expecteds to attend are Mayor Frank Meier and Trustee Kenneth Hamsher, chairman of the police committee.

Concentrating on handling routine business since handed the acting chief assignment May 26, Lt. Nagle said patrols have been "sharpened up" and officers are emphasizing work in what the long-time lawman termed "problem areas."

As to how things are going, Nagle commented, "I'm getting goof vibes from the mayor and the trustees."

Mayor Meier might make Nagle's appointment as early as June 19, although officially the acting chief's appointment was for 30 days.

Q. My friend wears one contact lens for seeing at a distance and another for reading and other close work. Is it okay to do that?

Dr. James Doherty
OPTOMETRIST

A. Yes. This is called monovision. It is a popular way to provide good vision at all seeing distances for people over 40, most of whom have presbyopia, a vision condition which affects reading vision and is part of the normal aging process. Many also need help to see clearly at a distance.

Bifocal contact lenses are another option but the prescription parameters are limited right now. So they won't work for everyone.

Most people can adapt to monovision. Those who need help only for seeing up close wear only one contact lens. Any type of contacts–hard, soft, gas-permeable and extended-wear–can be used with monovision.

People over 40 have more complicated vision demands than younger persons. It is important, therefore, to seek care from an optometrist willing to give your eyes the extra time and attention they need.

Drains Run Slow?

You'll never have a slow running, or clogged drain again! The secret? Clean drains don't run slow.

Slow drains, or periodic clogs, are SIGNALS that a thick layer of GOOK is choking your pipes. Grease, hair, and other waste sticks to your pipes, with every use. This gook deposits along the entire length of the pipe. It chokes your pipes gradually, as it gets thicker and thicker.

Conventional drain openers can't fix slow drains. They react chemically on the surface of the gook. To be effective, they must remain in contact with the waste. Even a small tunnel through the gook lets them flow out to the sewer, leaving the gook behind.

In the past, the only way to remove this build-up was to rooter your pipes. But that's expensive, and often only a temporary help.

Now, with just a few minutes each month, you can easily clean out your pipes... and KEEP them clean with Plumb Clean. Its totally unique formula clings, and penetrates deep into the gook. That is what allows it to liquify even years of build-up. Plumb Clean will clean the entire length of your pipes. It will make your drains run like new, when used as directed. This penetrating action is so revolutionary, we stand behind Plumb Clean with a money-back guarantee!

Saves Money

A 1 lb. container of Plumb Clean holds up to 41 drain treatments. Even if drain openers could fix slow drains, you would have to buy over 10 quart bottles to get the same number of treatments. Plumb Clean costs about 35¢ per treatment. We don't know of anything that cleans drains for less.

Safe Too

Conventional drain openers are dangerous chemicals. They can injure eyes on contact. They can release deadly vapors, in some situations. Some, may damage your fixtures. Plumb Clean will not burn skin, or eyes. It will not release harmful fumes. When used as directed, it is 100% safe for people, and of course all plumbing.

So, if your drains are giving you a signal, act now. Start cleaning your drains the safe, effective, guaranteed way. Get Plumb Clean today!

Vitek clings to tax job Geary wants to select

Bernard Vitek of Lindenhurst still has the Lake County Board of Review job he has held for the past eight years.

Unless County Board Chairman Norman Geary can come up with more support, it appears likely his hand-picked appointee may have to wait a little longer to take Vitek's place.

Geary admitted it will not be easy to name Ed Gueroult Jr. of Round Lake to the Board of Review. Gueroult ran for assessor on Geary's losing Avon Good Government ticket in the April election. He is a financial consultant. Onetime president of the Avon School board, he is currently a member of the combined Grayslake Unit Dist. 46 elementary school board.

Avon Twp. Assessor Gerald Kristan, who defeated Gueroult in April, has criticized Geary for attempting to make this a political appointment. He has also questioned Gueroult's qualifications, saying he did not even know how to read his own tax bill. Gueroult came to him questioning a $10,005 exemption on last year's bill.

Kristan noted that replacing Vitek will leave the board with only one long-term member on the three-person board, Austin Douglas of Lake Bluff. The third member is Milicent Berliant, onetime County Board member appointed in March by Geary.

Geary called a special County Board meeting for May 24 to replace Vitek. Although many members did attend, those opposed stayed outside the meeting room to prevent assembly of the necessary quorum for a legal meeting. Geary said he was disappointed. He did not know if the matter will be on the agenda for the regular Tuesday, June 13, County Board meeting.

Geary said it is important to have people he knows and trusts on important bodies such as the Board of Review. When he served on the board 10 years ago, Geary said he discovered a number of inconsistencies. He said Board of Review appointments are the tradition and prerogative of the County Board chairman.

The Board of Review considers objections to tax bills. With quadrennial assessments in a number of townships this year, that workload is expected to increase in the fall.

Meanwhile, Vitek, 68, is waiting to see what will happen next. The resident of 1917 Hazelwood Dr., Lindenhurst, said his eight years of experience on the Board of Review is an asset. A former Lake Villa Twp. assessor for for 8-1/2 years, he was appointed to his current position by former Lake Villa Twp. Sup. Ronald Coles when he was County Board chairman. The job pays $15,000 annually for once-a-week meetings half of the year and almost daily meetings from September through June.

Select youths for $500 scholarship

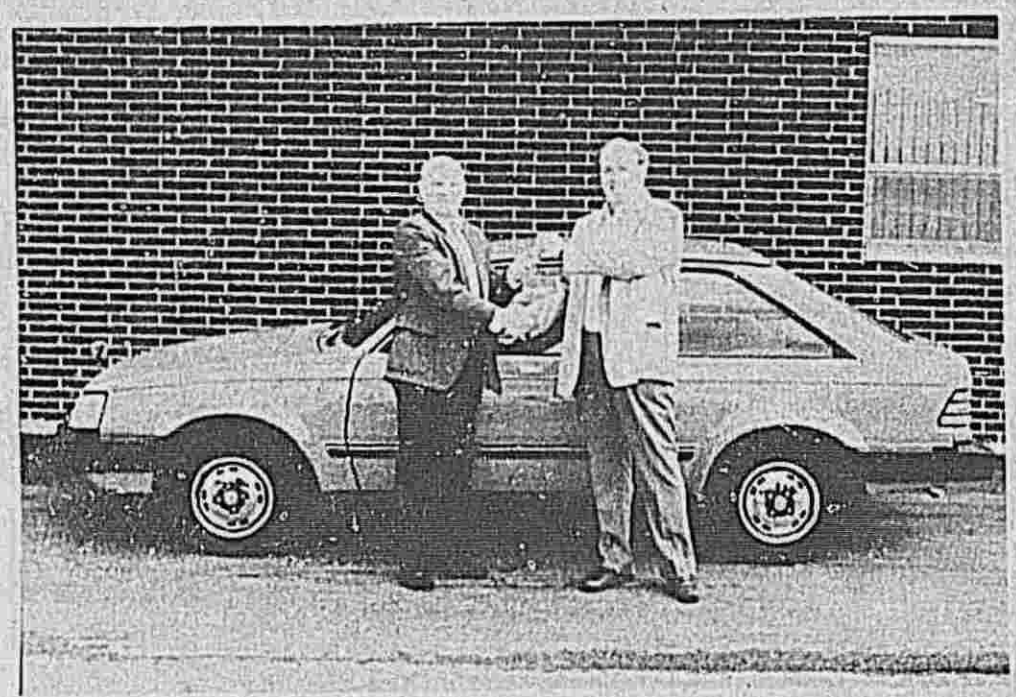

Three Lake County youths have been selected as recipients of the Illinois Sheriff's Assn. Scholarships, Sheriff Clint Grinnell has announce.

Honored were Jennifer M. Haley from Antioch Community High School, Craig B. Primack from Round Lake High School, and Jason P. La Croix of Grayslake Community High School, Grinnell said.

"They were among the 133 students selected statewide pursuing courses of vocational training or attending institutions of higher learning," he added.

The goal of the association is to provide $500 tuition assistance to worthy students in furthering their education and training.

Haley and La Croix plan to continue their education at the University of Illinois at Urbana - Champaign, while Primack is deciding among the University of Illinois, Northwestern or Purdue Universities, Grinnell said.

Defense, seniors show way

By STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

The school bus looked like just another one parked at Prospect High School in Mt. Prospect.

There were no banners, newspaper clippings or inspirational signs taped to the side.

That's just not the Mundelein way.

"I'm not a rah-rah coach," Mundelein girls softball Coach Jim deRivera said.

deRivera was speaking a few hours after his team's dramatic 6-5 win over Prospect which propelled Mundelein to its first-ever Elite Eight showing in Pekin Thursday.

Overtime

The win, a come-from-behind effort, featured many a dazzling defensive play on both sides.

There was Mundelein catcher Holly Smith, hit hard in the hand, throwing two would-be base stealers out at second base. There was Cindy Shark, falling down in centerfield and rifling one to shortstop Demi Michleau. For Prospect, there was shortstop Aimee Smith tossing to third baseman Angie Brown for a key force out. And there was leftfielder Deeana Deal making a sure grab of a second inning fly ball. Deal had had a rough, two-error game against Mustangs.

The win proved to be sweet satisfaction for a handful of seniors on the team. Two years ago, they had come within six outs of making the trip south to Pekin before New Trier rallied at Hersey.

As the hoopla died down, de Rivera reflected on the seniors' contributions:

On Susan Musselwhite:"she's been the same way all four years - the best player I've ever coached".

On Katie Alyea: her second year on the varsity, she came through with some clutch hits.

On catcher Holly Smith:"she is one of the hardest working kids. She has played the outfield, third base, shortstop and second base". Smith never caught before this year but had to adjust quickly to Musselwhite's rapid fire pitches. "Her biggest adjustment was gaining her confidence," deRivera said of Smith.

On Racel Rios:"Our designated hitter, she had some big hits for us," deRivera said.

Mustangs rally for Elite Eight spot

By STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

Mundelein girls softball Coach Jim deRivera asked his forces a clear question.

"Is Mundelein a one-dimensional team," he asked.

"No" - the team answered, both to the coach and anyone who would listen at the Prospect sectional. Throughout the year, the Mustangs heard the snears. That without Susan Musselwhite, they were not a top-rated team.

Staging simply a brilliant rally straight from Yogi Berra's "it's not over until it's over" theory, the North Suburban Conference champs earned its first Elite Eight appearance with a stunning 6-5 win over Prospect.

"It was intensity, team unity and desire," junior shortstop Demi Michleau said.

"It was a great game. It was a kind of game where you hate to see anybody lose," Mundelein Coach Jim deRivera said.

The Mustangs, 27-5 and owners of a 26 game winning streak, played the winner of the Carbondale sectional Thursday at Pekin.

"I've been here 14 years and now it's our turn. I guess the odds were with me," deRivera, who was coaching his third sectional team, said.

Musselwhite and Prospect starting pitcher Jan Hernet were anything but overpowering in the first frame. Prospect, the visiting team, gained a quick 2-0 lead. Taking advantage of five walks, the Mustangs tied it up quickly at 2-2.

"That was Susan's worst game in four years," deRivera said.

Mundelein used aggressive baserunning and a deRivera hunch to rally from a three-run deficit in the fifth inning.

Prospect had just seemingly gained an insurmountable lead at 5-2 by scoring three runs over two innings when deRivera inserted Deeana Deal to pinch hit for Rachel Rios.

Deal hit the ball sharply to the Prospect shortstop her first at bat, but came through with the game-winner in the seventh inning. Deal poked a 2-2 pitch to center field, scoring Lynette Kowalke, who was hit by a pitch with two out and a single by Katie Alyea put runners on first and second base. Kowlake, getting a strong jump off the pitch, scored standing up.

"I've never been so relaxed at the plate before," Deal said.

Deal said she had prepared for the game by hitting with the batting practice pitching machine on high.

Somehow it was fitting that Deal would have a chance to be the heroine. She had a rough game in left field against Warren, committing two errors in the Mustangs 1-0 win. But she handled a second inning fly ball - her only chance - perfectly.

Deal said that catch gave her confidence. There was still a matter of a certain comeback.

"I never saw one person hang their head," lead-off hitter Ashley Struggles said.

Musselwhite's pitching, hitting KO Blue Devils

By STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

Warren Twp. High School's girls softball team accomplished almost all of its goals Coach Chris Woodard set before Monday's sectional showdown against Mundelein.

"We wanted to keep it close so it could be decided by one or two breaks which would hopefully go our way," Woodard said.

The Blue Devils, behind the pitching of Crystal Cobb, did just that as the two teams fought it out to a 0-0 tie for six of the seven innings. But Mundelein, which edged Warren in extra innings twice during the regular season, took advantage of Warren's lone error in the fourth inning and scored an unearned run in a 1-0 win. The victory advanced Mundelein to the final round of the Prospect sectional. It marked the second time in three years Mundelein has been one step away from the state tournament at Pekin.

"We just wanted to play a good consistent game," Woodard said.

Susan Musselwhite was a sophomore phenom when the Mustangs came within six outs of reaching the state finals before New Trier rallied in the Hersey sectional final in 1987.

"I know now you can't give up. You have to make the most of it," she said.

Musselwhite's pitching performance was not the only strong one at Prospect High.

"Crystal pitched a great game. She didn't walk anybody," Woodard said of Cobb.

Warren came into the four-team sectional as the only non-20 game winner. But in the end earned the respect of the Mustangs.

"You have to give Warren credit. They are a well-coached team," Mundelein Coach Jim deRivera said.

"We knew it was not going to be easy," Mundelein winning pitcher Musselwhite said.

Musselwhite was simply overpowering against the Blue Devils. She struck out 11 Warren hitters and had a no-hitter going in the seventh inning. A walk and two errors by the left-fielder gave Warren, 16-10, its other baserunners.

Musselwhite is also impressing the opposition with her bat, and she delivered the game-winning hit. Leadoff hitter Ashley Struggles reached second base when Warren shortstop Karen Uhlir overthrew first base on a ground out. Just minutes earlier, Uhlir had taken a foul ball in the face.

Michelle Strachn sacrificed Struggles to third base and Musselwhite delivered the key blow.

Holly Smith reached on an infield hit, but Cobb settled down to get the final two outs.

Warren believed that Mundelein's one weakness was defense - the Mustangs had seven errors in winning the Barrington regional 6-2 over Lake Zurich.

But Monday, several players, including Strachn at second base, Musselwhite and first baseman Lynette Kowalke stopped would be Warren shots.

"With the exception of our left-fielder, it was one of our best defensive games all season," de Rivera said.

Warren did have its chances against Mundelein. Heather Olejcak, who was named to the all-North Suburban Conference team, walked to leadoff the second inning, but could not be advanced.

Cobb, a basketball standout who entered the game with a 7-2 record, ended her Blue Devil sports career with a clean single to center field in the seventh inning with one out. Uhlir earlier had reached on a Mundelein error with one out. But Musselwhite then retired two batters to end Warren's season.

But there was no hanging of heads on the Warren side this hot afternoon. After all, they had accomplished most of the goals.

Lake County trio helps Aurora win NIIC crown

Three Lake County baseball players have helped Aurora University win a conference title and advance to the national Division III tournament.

College of Lake County graduate and Warren Twp. High School product Mike Foote highlighted the Division III tournament with a two-run, ninth inning home run. The blast brought the Spartans to within 7-6 but was not enough in the loss to Illinois Wesleyan.

Maurey Sage of Vernon Hills was the losing pitcher. Illinois Wesleyan rocked Sage for seven runs in the first four innings. The hurler then settled down after that.

In the second game of the tournament, the Spartans fell to Wooster 10-4 in the double elimination tournament held at Otterbein College.

Wooster and Aurora battled in the early stages before Wooster grabbed a 4-1 lead in the sixth and extended it to 10-1.

Foote again sparked an Aurora rally. He and Wauconda grad Jeff Potts swatted solo home runs. Junior Bob Gujardo, a St. Lawrence University graduate, singled and scored on a throwing error.

"The tournament was a good experience four out team," Schmid said.

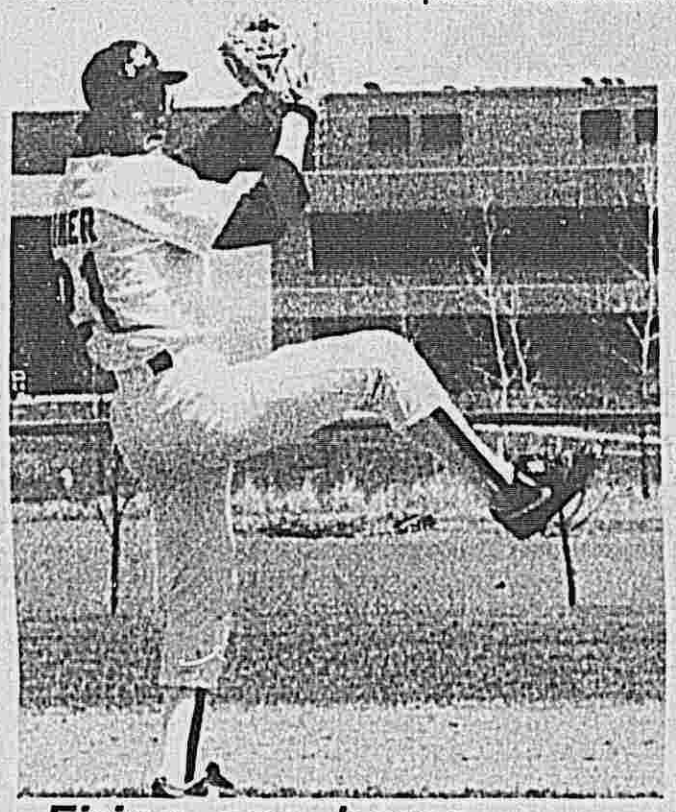

Sage, a 1985 graduate of Grayslake High School, received his fourth-year varsity award from Aurora University baseball Coach Jim Schmid at the Spartan Spring Sports Award banquet in Aurora.

"Maurey is one of the finest pitchers ever to wear a Spartan uniform. He is an excellent athlete with great strikeout potential and the ability to win," Schmid said.

Sage, a 6-0, 170 pound senior, was a pitcher for the Spartans this season and posted a 5-3 record with six saves and 45 strikeouts. He ended his career at AU with a 24-10 four-year record with nine saves and 200 strikeouts.

Aurora ended the season with a 27-11 overall record and won the Northern Illinois Intercollegiate Conference with an 8-0 record. It marked the sixth consecutive time that Aurora has won the NIIC title.

Sage is a physical education major.

State meet qualifying trio highlights Antioch track

Qualifying three athletes to the state track and field meet and the best North Suburban Conference finish ever were highlights for the Antioch boys track and field team.

"I was very happy with the year," Antioch Coach Norm Hahn said.

Chris Horton qualified for the state meet at Eastern Illinois University in the pole vault, while Jeremy Richter made the trip to Charleston as a discus thrower and Mike Golebiowski advanced in the shot put.

While they came close to their personal bests, none of the three advanced to the final round.

Golebiowski had a 47-11 in the shot put, his second best effort. However, it took a 53 foot throw to advance to the finals.

Richter had a 149-7 effort in the discus, but had to throw 159 feet to make the finals.

Horton, who qualified for the state meet with a 13-6, slipped to 12-6 in the preliminary round.

The Sequoits finished 6-3 in duals in the NSC, the best in the school's six-year history in the conference.

"We had a lot of personal bests this year and that's what I look for," Hahn said.

Antioch finished fourth in the sectional as a team and enjoyed its best finish ever in the Lake County meet.

Why should you choose an emergency room before you need one?

Because all emergency rooms are not alike!

The emergency room at Saint Therese Medical Center is proud to be the only Level II Trauma Center in North Lake County. Level II is a special designation awarded by the State of Illinois to emergency rooms that meet a long list of rigorous standards.

One requirement is top qualified professionals. That's why our emergency room is fully staffed with trauma nurse specialists and the most board-certified emergency room specialists in the county. Plus, trauma surgeons and other specialists are on call 24 hours a day.

So, if one of life's emergencies occurs—big or small—you can be assured that Saint Therese is bound by the State to provide the highest level of care in the area—24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

And, to round out our emergency services, the Saint Therese Area Trauma Satellite on Rt. 59 at Rt. 132 in Lake Villa is open from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m., seven days a week.
